FROM THE REHOBOTH BOARD

BOARD PRESIDENT UPDATE

Spring greetings from the Rehoboth Board of Directors! We have been busy working behind the scenes. One example is the Board/Provincial Executive retreat held early in the new year that really set us off in the right direction for 2020. We are happy to report that God blessed us with a desire to continue to work together in moving forward in faith.

We are also reminded yet again of the many volunteers that contribute to making our clients flourish. The volunteers who work tirelessly at the New to You store in Three Hills, at the Greenhouse and Wood Shop in Coaldale, at Rehoboth Camp near Gull Lake, and on fundraising and special event committees all over the province. Thank you for your ongoing and vital support!

Our AGM will be held in Calgary this year on June 20. Please join us at this meeting – we would love to meet you there.

And lastly, we are looking for new board members (two), so if this is of interest to you please contact me at president@rcmflourish.ca for more information.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR UPDATE

Thanks for taking a bit of your valuable time to flip through this April 2020 edition of Flourish! On these pages, we highlight people flourishing in their own unique ways through the support and encouragement of our incredible staff.

Flourish! is published only twice a year but you can connect with Rehoboth each and every day on Instagram and Facebook, and by visiting rcmflourish.ca.

Every October, thousands of Rehoboth supporters connect with us in a very tangible way by contributing to the Rehoboth Membership Campaign. We were amazed and humbled by the level of support demonstrated in the October 2019 campaign: membership fees and donations totaled $188,300! These funds will be instrumental in helping people with disabilities flourish. We thank our church canvassers whose hard work and dedication to the campaign are truly invaluable. We are blessed and grateful to all of you for your prayers and your support. God is good.

CCU FAITHFUL SUPPORTER

Rehoboth has a long-term relationship with Christian Credit Union and we are excited to be partnering once again for the Community Builder Membership Drive. The campaign focuses on raising awareness of both Rehoboth and Christian Credit Union as well as encouraging more people to become members of the organizations.

Rehoboth continues to partner with Christian Credit Union because of their values; they acknowledge that God has a lot to say about money and believe there is a need for a biblical approach to financial services. Members of the Christian Credit Union, such as Rehoboth or individual account holders, appreciate dealing with a financial institution that encourages and supports them in applying biblical stewardship principles to their day-to-day finances.

Through the Community Builder Membership Drive, Christian Credit Union donates to Rehoboth because of you and your choice to bank with them, giving you peace of mind knowing your membership is making a difference for God's kingdom.

HAVE A GOOD ROUND - MAY THE FOURS BE WITH YOU

EASING INTO RETIREMENT

Ron joined the Rehoboth family on May 1, 1987. In his 33 years of support, he has had many jobs over the years, from working in the greenhouses and woodshop to some of the varying community contract jobs. Ron is always willing to help with any task but one of his favourites had to be any maintenance jobs such as fixing things, taking things apart and putting things back together.

After years of hard work, Ron started the transition to retirement in January 2019 and the first phase of the transition was staying home on Thursdays. Ron gets to have a quiet and relaxing morning, watching the cooking channel and having a late breakfast. Afterward, Ron and his supports head over to the Lethbridge Senior Citizens Organization to volunteer at the diner where he enjoys seeing many old friends while also embracing new ones.

Ron's afternoon is then filled with entertainment and friendships as he joins the other seniors for refreshments and a live music performance. The classic country ones are his favorite! Sitting in the front row, cheering and singing along to his favorite songs assures Ron that although it is a big change, retirement is looking pretty good!

DREAM BECOMES REALITY

Do you remember your high school graduation ceremony? The anticipation, the sense of accomplishment, the camaraderie with your classmates, the celebration with family and friends? It's a significant milestone that marks the transition from childhood to adulthood.

In 1980, Andrew was looking forward to graduating with his peers. While he hadn't completed all the same schoolwork, he faithfully attended classes, completed his assignments and participated in school events. Unfortunately, regulations prohibited anyone from walking without a high school diploma. Being the supportive and selfless friend that he is, Andrew attended the ceremony and enthusiastically celebrated his classmates as they walked to receive their diplomas.

Decades later, Andrew still wishes that he could have walked that day. But with the help of his tutor, Dianne, previous high school principal, Mr. Penner, and the willingness of his old school, Prairie Christian Academy, that wish became reality. Letters were sent, appeals were made and within a few months, a package arrived; Andrew's dream was coming true. Forty years later, Andrew will finally get to walk in a cap and gown and receive his certificate in front of family and friends as he hoped for so long!

CONNECTING EVERYONE

Making Connections was formed as a way to bridge age and social gaps between teenagers, seniors, and adults with disabilities. Over the last year, clients supported by Rehoboth have been regularly spending time with senior residents from Emmanuel Home in Edmonton. Each visit with the same clients, residents and staff has enabled some beautiful friendships to bloom.

The group meets once every two or three months for a variety of activities such as learning the hand bells, Carnival Day, drum circle, a day at camp, Vine of Hope celebrations, and a scavenger hunt! Each member of Making Connections is blessed to be a part of it and is looking forward to adding some of the younger generation into the mix!

EXCELLENT CARE AT REHOBOTH

Over the last six years, I have watched my daughter Jenna, with the assistance of her Rehoboth staff, blossom from a happy school girl to an outgoing member of the community who sings, dances and loves spending time with her friends and meeting new people.

Rehoboth supports Jenna to stay physically active with a swimming program at the Eastlink Centre, range-of-motion exercises and dance class while also encouraging Jenna to be engaged with her community through activities at the Grande Prairie Public Library, Joy Chapel Suppers, study group, and summer park activities. Staying connected to friends with trips to the mall and fun get-togethers are planned by Jenna and her supports. Jenna's staff at Rehoboth work to keep her safe, comfortable and engaged on a daily basis and work as a team to continue to make her life full and happy.

TWINING

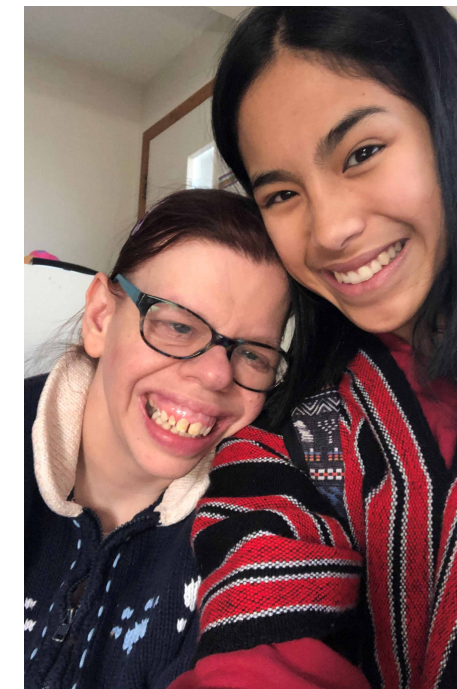

They say when you work with people, you start to resemble each other. Dakota and Rhea have gone one step further and started dressing alike for Rehoboth event days! They first showed up at our pajama party at the end of October in matching Chipmunk onesies. Then for our Christmas party, they sported matching Naughty/Nice sweaters, ripped jeans and Ho! Ho! Ho! toques. Is there a more fun way to practice inclusion than this? We can't wait to see what they come up with for our family Easter luncheon. Way to go Dakota and Rhea!

WORDS FROM A VOLUNTEER

This is Suzy. She is a true light in my life, as you can see in this photo. Whenever I come over to hang out with my friend Suzy, she greets me with the warmth and brightness of the sun itself. She is a great joy to be around, sprouting smiles and leaving laughter wherever she goes. I have come to look forward to every visit - she knows how to have fun! When we spend time together, I can always expect to have a fun and relaxing chat about our day. I am so grateful to have Suzy in my life, and have fondly come to know her as my sweet friend.

CAMP FLOURISH

BE COURAGEOUS!

This is the theme of Rehoboth Camp Ministry this summer. We are excited for another awesome summer of developing relationships with Jesus and each other. Volunteers are still needed so if you have never been to Camp before, we encourage you to be courageous and give a camper their best week of the year!

Camp is excited to unveil three new outdoor activities this year, made possible by the efforts of the Joyful Noise Choir to support Camp through collections and community awareness. Disc Golf, Chess, and Snakes and Ladders, giant ones at that, will be great additions to the Camp experience. And coming fall 2021 -- the projected start of work on a brand new cabin, which will be funded through donations collected through the Joyful Noise Choir and those given directly to Rehoboth Camp Ministry.

Rehoboth Camp Ministry would also like to extend the utmost gratitude and appreciation to three volunteers that are resigning from their positions: Caroline Leffers (Food Coordinator), Fran Aarnoutse (Camp Committee Member) and Willa Bosch (Camp Committee Member and Co-Director of R&R Week, this is Willa's final year). Thank you all for your dedication to Camp over the years; may our friendship be everlasting and visits be often.

JOYFUL NOISE CHOIR

Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these."
Mathew 9:14

IT WOULD HAVE BEEN EASY TO SAY, "NO!"

The 17 boys and girls in an impromptu choir had asked Pastor Gordon Pols at West End Christian Reformed Church in Edmonton if they could lead the afternoon worship service with Ken Medema's musical, Story Tellin' Man. There was no precedence for having children lead, and more history about having them out of sight.

With Pastor Gordon's leadership and Council's support, the children brought their gifts to worship for the first time. That was 1978. Now, 41 years later, over 60 children from 19 churches in the Joyful Noise Choir still ask, "Can we come and lead you in worship?" For Rein Selles, Director, the goal of the choir is to sing from the heart. "The children are unlike a traditional choir. They know who they are singing for and what they need to bring to worship." In addition to visits to churches, the choir also aims to create bridges in the community. When on tour, the choir makes a point of visiting and sharing their gifts with seniors in residences or homes where they are welcome.

As ambassadors for Rehoboth, the choir reaches out to congregations and communities across Alberta to help build community and fellowship in support of Rehoboth Camp Ministry. Wherever they go, membership and support for Rehoboth have increased as a result.

SAY "COME!"

- Cost - Rehoboth and the choir share the cost of bringing the children to interested churches
- Effort - Organization of a visit is done in cooperation with the Director and Emma Solowan of Rehoboth.
- Service Planning - The Director will provide a draft outline of suggested songs based on the host church's order of worship.
- Introductions - The children would like to meet families in the hosting church either by billeting (if overnight stay is needed) or a potluck lunch after the service.
- Timing - The choir tours in late October or early November.

IMPACT STATEMENTS

"Having the Joyful Noise Choir come to Trinity is something we look forward to each year. The children breathe so much energy into the congregation! And, it's not just us watching them, it's the Choir helping lead us as we all participate and worship God together. They come every year, so we get to see the children as they grow up in Joyful Noise. This gives us an opportunity to appreciate the good work the Lord is doing in their lives through the Choir."

Michael McGowan, Pastor
Trinity CRC

"In addition to the simple joy of intergenerational worship which the Joyful Noise choir brings - a sense that worship is not just about stages of faith but also about all stages of life - is perceiving what that meant for the adults who were there to worship God. It's not that a children's choir made us more aware of God but they made us more aware that together we are the body of Christ. In that sense their participation helped us do exactly what worship is intended to do."

Henry Kranenburg, Lead Pastor,
West End CRC

"The choir was one of the highlights of our year as a worshipping community. They filled our worship service with excellent music and more importantly with joy!"

Ryan Hoogerbrugge, Pastor
La Glace CRC
